

INFORMATIVA SUL TRATTAMENTO DEI DATI PERSONALI (ai sensi dell'art. 13 del GDPR 2016/679 General Data Protection Regulation)

Dear Member,
under EU Regulation 2016/679 art. 13 regarding the information delivered to us, in order to protect individuals and other subjects and in relation to personal data, the "Musical Association Sette Note Romane" as owner of the personal data processing, informs you that personal data acquired with reference to the established relationship will be handled in compliance with fundamentals rights and freedoms and respecting the dignity of the interested party with particular care to confidentiality, personal identity and the right to protection of personal data

Please, take note of the following information:

A) Data are collected only for the purpose to promote the activities of the Association and, in particular:

1. To promote and protect the moral, social and economical interests of the Members with respect to any private or public entity;
2. Ease relations between Members, to study and solve problems of common interest, mediating between them;
3. Take initiatives to provide for professional and/or technical training of its Members;
4. Carry out all other tasks assigned by laws, regulations and provisions of appropriate Authorities.

B) Data provided will be handled with non electronic means.

C) Providing data is optional, however in case of refusal to share it, it will prevent us from providing the services for which the Association has been established.

D) Your personal data may be disclosed to the Board of Directors members, to members attending the Assembly, to the President and to any other temporary figure provided for and regulated by the regulation in force and to those in charge of the secretarial office.

E) Your personal data could be disclosed to other entities (institutions or Associations) which the undersigned is already registered to or will be a member of, which share the purposes set out in our Association statute.

F) Your personal data will be not disclosed

Whenever the conditions occur you may file a complaint to the Italian Data Protection Authority (UE Regulation 2016/679 art.77 and Personal Data Protection Code, Art.140-bis and 143, which contains provisions to adapt national legislation to the Regulation).

Responsible for personal data processing is PRETORIUS IVANA BRENDA with domicile elected in Via dei Mazzanti, 45 - 00148 ROMA, mail: brenda.pretorius@settenoteromane.com .

Data: _____

Signature_____